CENTRAL WINS AISD AWARD

For the second time in three years, Central has won the Amarillo School District's Partner of the Year award. Central was distinguished from 20 nominees last week for our work with Snack Pak for Kids, the money we send, and the volunteer hours we spend at Bivins Elementary. For more on this award and our great long-time partnership with Bivins, listen to last week's podcast with Bivins Principal Benny Barraza and Central Children's Minister Mary McNeill. You can find the podcast on the Central app and under the "Media" tab on the church website.

WELCOME BACK!

We have started the slow and deliberate process of returning to in-person public services at Central. If you are worshipping with us in the worship center today, we ask that you help us maintain an environment in which everybody feels loved and protected:

- if you're in an at-risk category, please stay home and participate in the services online
- bring your own mask and wear it while you're in the building
- practice social distancing at all times
- stay on the ground floor only

This is a temporary situation — the guidelines will be tempered as we monitor the local Covid-19 developments and follow the guidance of our city leaders. Thank you so much for your patience and grace as we navigate this transition together.

"UNITING AS ONE" JUNE 28 AT POTTER COUNTY COURTHOUSE

All of Central is invited to a city-wide, all-church, interdenominational, interracial, worship service to express our unity together in Christ. We will cry out to God with one voice and pray together for healing and reconciliation for our city, this country, and the whole world. The choir will be made up of singers from all the participating churches. Prayers for healing, harmony, and peace will be led by pastors and preachers from the different congregations. And the entire evening will be a testimony to our Christian commitment to live, serve, and worship together in unity and love as the one Body of Christ. The event begins at 6:00pm. More details are coming soon.
